NOVEMBER MEETINGS

At the November 7th color meeting, Albert Moldway will discuss his work with the National Geographic Society.

In the workshop session, George Winnett will show how to make derivations with slides using Kodalith film.

The November 21st black and white meeting will feature Karl Hartig, APSA, of Aberdeen, Maryland and "Getting Started in Color Printing."

During the workshop, former SSCC President Al Beach will show how he makes his own Christmas cards.

Coming Attraction: December 5th -- Mike Mitchell, Washington free lance photographer. December 19th -- PSA Pictorial Print Division Instruction Exhibit entitled "Pictorial People," 20 to 25 successful prints by famous photographers, with taped commentary.

Workshop Chairman Irene Weidler would like to devote the December workshop sessions to a showing and discussion of the winning prints and slides in last season's year-end competition. Winners: please bring your photos - color to the December 5th meeting and black and white to the December 19th meeting - so that those unable to attend the June banquet may see them.

CONGRATULATIONS!

To Cathy Sells, who was named an Associate in the Photographic Society of America, at the recent PSA International Convention held at Oklahoma City.

FIELD TRIPS

About 20 members participated in the October 12th trip to the Carroll County Farm Museum. Thanks to Alex Jacobs for handling the arrangements!

The long-awaited trip to the Al-Marah Arabian Horse Farm at Barnesville, Maryland, will take place on Saturday, November 16th. We will meet at the Silver Spring Library parking lot at 10:00 a.m. Before the 1:30 display of horses and training methods at Al-Marah, we will visit the nearby Arabian Horse Museum and have lunch. There will be a place to eat indoors if the weather is chilly.

Several suggestions for future trips have been made, including a visit to Friendship Airport, a ballet school, and a theatrical group. Other ideas are welcome, too.
