CABLE RELEASE

NOVEMBER 1969

FORTHCOMING MEETINGS

Henry Mandelbaum reports that the color meeting on November 2 will feature Mr. and Mrs. C. Graham Cromwell, who will present a photo essay on Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Cromwell, past Presidents of the C & P Telephone Company Camera Club, Vice Presidents of the Baltimore Camera Club, and Treasurers of the Council of Maryland Camera Clubs, are one-star exhibitors in the color slide division of the Photographic Society of America.

The category for November competition is open.

President Irene Weidler plans to start future meetings with announcements at 7:45. Come earlier and hear all the news. Meetings will be at the usual place, the Silver Spring Public Library, 8901 Colesville Rd., Silver Spring, Md.

As a general rule, the Club meets on the first and third Thursdays of each month. In January, however, we shall meet on the 15th and 29th in order to avoid a holiday conflict.

It is suggested that all members wear their badges and name tags at meetings. The name tags issued to members in good standing help in getting to know one another.

DUES

1. May be paid by check -- $7.50;
2. Must be paid before registering for competition;
3. Must be paid in order to receive the Cable Release beyond the December issue.

NEW MEMBERS

We extend a cordial welcome to new members Richard R. Berning and Gilbert B. Seymour.

DOUBLE HEADER

Joseph Atchison won first place in both the color and black and white competitions in September. Irene Weidler scored third in both competitions. Versatility is the hallmark of a good photographer. This corrects an error in last month's Cable Release, in which both Joe and Irene were credited with honorable mentions in the color competition.

G.W.C.C. INDIVIDUAL COMPETITION

The Greater Washington Council of Camera Clubs will hold its individual competition on November 15, 1969 at the National 4-H Center, 7100 Connecticut Ave., Chevy Chase, Md. Rules and entry tables are obtainable from Ira Penn, G.C.C.C. Representative. All entries should be turned in to him at the November 6 meeting, but Ira will accept prints and slides at his home through November 9 (call first) from those unable to meet the November 6 deadline. Entry fees are $1.00 for each class and must be paid at the time entries are submitted.

This year the program will be run somewhat differently. The black and white portion will be held in the morning. During the luncheon following the print judging Dr. Ernest Buccero will speak. Awards will be distributed to winners immediately after the competition. Cost of the cafeteria-style luncheon is $1.50 per person.

All entries must be submitted through an affiliated camera club, and contestants must be members in good standing in their clubs. So -- pay your dues!

G.C.C.C. PHOTO ESSAY WORKSHOP AND COMPETITION

essay workshop for all those interested in the preparation of a photo essay. The workshop will consist of four sessions held on November 4, 18, 25, and December 2, and will cost $10 per person or $15 for a husband and wife team. Each session will last from 8:00 to 10:00 p.m. and will include lectures, slides, and photo essays presented by the Photo Essayists Club.

In February a GWCCC photo essay competition is planned. Anyone interested in the workshop should obtain registration forms from Ira Penn. All sessions will be held at the National 4-H Center, 7100 Connecticut Ave., Chevy Chase, Md. Participation is limited and you must register in advance, so act soon.

ALL-MARYLAND INDIVIDUAL CONTEST

The annual All-Maryland Individual Photo Contest will be held at 10:00 a.m. on November 2 at the C & P Pioneer House, 5407 Harford Rd., Baltimore (near Camera Mart). Entries may be turned in to President Irene Weidler, 2112 Ross Rd., Silver Spring, up to October 31.

The competition is open to SSCC members in good standing. There is a fee of $1.00 for each category: Black and White Prints; Color Prints; Slides. Four entries per category may be submitted. Competition will be judged in three classes for Black and White Prints: Amateur (novice), max. 8 x 10; Advanced amateur, max. 11 x 14; Unlimited, max. 16 x 20.

Color prints will be judged in two classes: Amateur (novice), max. 11 x 14; Unlimited, max. 16 x 20.

There are no classes for color slides (max. 2 1/4 x 2 1/4). All will be judged together. Generally speaking, you compete in the class in which you compete in SSCC, in the print categories.

You must complete an entry form and make out the All-Maryland labels required for prints. These may be obtained from Irene Weidler. Entries will be returned at the November 6 color meeting, in time for submission in the GWCCC contest. Any questions regarding rules, directions for getting to Pioneer House, etc. may be directed to Pete Guarino, tel. 929-1256.

COMMERCE DEPARTMENT PHOTO SHOW

Three members of the SSCC, Morris Weinberger, Ira Penn, and Donald Becker "cleaned up" in the recent Department of Commerce Photo Contest. The three took 18 of 41 prizes awarded by the Welfare and Recreation Council sponsoring the show, held from October 13-17.

Morris Weinberger's beach scene took three awards -- 1st in the black and white scenic category, best black and white of show, and most popular photo of the show. He also won two other first prizes, as well as a second and third. Ira Penn took two first prizes, one second, two third prizes, and three honorable mentions, as well as a best-of-show honorable mention. Donald Becker won two second prizes and an honorable mention.
