Slide Meeting (December 6)

The December slide meeting will be held at the Sligo Creek Community Center at 10300 Sligo Creek Parkway in Silver Spring. The presentation for the evening is entitled "Portugal Revisited." The 20 SSCC field trippers who went to Portugal are going to share their experiences with you on Thursday, December 6. They will relive their cloud-15 photographic adventures to the fishing towns of Cascais, Nazaré, and Peniche; the medieval towns of Obidos and Guimarals; the old and the new Lisbon and Oporto; the bullfights and markets; the ancient university city of Coimbra; and their brief venture into Spain.

So come! Share or relive their great adventure. And if you would like to return to Portugal, or you are sorry you missed this trip, let Edna Knopp know, and maybe she'll plan a return to this fascinating country.

The competition subject for Novice and Advanced slides will be "Open," and the judge will be Jay Anderson from the North Bethesda Camera Club.

Print Meeting (December 20)

The December print meeting will be held at the Long Branch Library in Silver Spring. The speakers and judges for this meeting will be Marty Caplan and Duane Hincy—speakers at the Maine summer workshops. Mr. Caplan started a career as a music teacher and then switched about 15 years ago to become a professional photographer. He ran his own portrait and wedding studio in upstate New York and then came to Washington, D.C. about 5 years ago. Since coming here his concentration has been in commercial photography, primarily location work.

Duane Hincy started in photography in 1956. He gave it up for awhile, then returned to it about 7 years ago. Mr. Hincy has attended about time Maine workshops. He has that a record album cover, advert tements for Washingtonian Magazine, and specializes in table top and outdoor landscape photography. Mr. Hincy is planning a trip around the world for 35 days starting this February. He'll take with him about 600 rolls of film.

The competition subject for monochrome and color prints will be "Open" as usual.

Competition Subjects for January & April

January - "Abstract Designs of Shape, Movement, Color, and Light" April - "Up and Down"

These subjects will apply only to the Novice and Advanced slide competitions; both color and monochrome print competitions will be "Open."

The subject "Up and Down" must contain representations of both concepts in one picture. However, "Abstract Designs etc." should be an and/or proposition, with photos containing one or more of the four criteria (shape, movement, color, and light).

Field Trip News

For the months of December and January there will be no field trips, since the weather is usually too cold for us to enjoy being outside. However, if someone comes up with an utterly irresistable idea for an outing, please call Edna Knopp ASAP.

Charleston, S.C.

for February 21-25 Charleston, S.C. up. We already have 15 on board If you are interested in going, please call Edna Knopp at 301-869-1789.

Ocracoke Out, Shenandoah In

The spring trip to Ocracoke Island has been postponed until 1992, by which time the Oregon Inlet bridge should be restored. As a replacement nature field trip we are scheduling a Memorial Day visit to Shenandoah National Park. On January 2 we will make reservations for furnished cabins at Lewis Mountain for those SSCC members who have signed up and have given us a $50 deposit by December 31. After that date you'll be responsible for making your own arrangements.

The cabins have both kitchen and bathroom facilities, and beds for two or four persons (extra cots can be provided if needed for other family members). (Bring the kids, if you wish.)

Members preferring to rough it can camp at Lewis Mountain or at Big Meadows (6 miles from Lewis Mt.). Those wanting hotel-type accommodations can get rooms at Big Meadows Lodge. But you are warned that all facilities will be booked early for the Memorial Day weekend.

For details, call Bill Perry at 593-5203.

A Little Background on the Cable Release

Volume 1, Issue Number 1 of the Cable Release was published in October 1961. The first editors were Ruth & Vernon Wertz. Ruth Wertz also happened to be president of the club that year. The only year the Cable Release was not published was for the club year of 1962-63.

As club historian, I am charged with collecting back issues of the club's newsletter. I have in my possession all copies of the Cable Release from October 1961 through April 1989, with the exception of the following issues:

Dec. 1961	Apr. 1962
May 1962	Sep. 1963
Mar. 1964	Mar. 1965
Dec. 1965	Apr. 1966

All issues from	Nov. 1966
through Sep	p. 1968
Mar. 1971	Apr. 1971

If you have one of these issues you no longer want to keep, or if know anybody that is willing to donate back issues of the Cable Release to the club, please let me know. For now, I am looking for original copies only. If an original cannot be obtained, I will accept a two-sided copy of an original. I will let you know the results of my "Hunt for October, November...."

New Directions Workshop

The next New Directions meeting will be a field trip on December 9th to The Hishhorn to see the John Baldessari exhibit, and then to the National Museum of American History to see works by Debbie Flemming Caffery.

Baldessari, an artist who switched from painting to photography 13 years ago, combines words and images in presentations that are very "new directions." Whether you'll love it or hate it, this is a great mind expanding show.

I have not seen the Caffery show yet, but I expect it to be equally stimulating, if not more mainstream. Caffery is a product of Louisiana sugar cane country—her 40 blackand-white images have been described as mysterious representations of that region's people and culture.

If you'd like to join us, meet at my house at 10 a.m., or at The Hirshhorn at 11 a.m., on Sunday, December 9.

Just in Case . . .

It was brought to my attention that people reading my article "On the Cutting Edge of Technology" in the November issue of the Cable Release might receive an incorrect impression of one of our members. I would like to take this opportunity to clarify the situation.

Garry Kreizman, one of the Silver Spring Camera Club's Masters of Photography, is highly respected both for his technical expertise and for his artistic sense. Garry is also one of three Silver Spring Camera Club members who have been personal mentors to me in my growth as a member and a photographer. I value his knowledge and expertise immensely!

The point I wanted to make in the article concerns the fact that technology has costs, and that these costs can effect even the most knowledgeable and expert amongst

Adequate Chemistry

A recent question and answer printed in a JOBO company publication, emphasizes an important point in photographic work, or in any chemistry applications for that matter.

All photographic processes are, in fact, chemical reactions. We all are well aware that their success is dependent upon time and temperature. However, many photographers are not aware of the significance of adequate chemical resources for the successful completion of each reaction. Without going into the complex area of stoichiometry, suffice it to say that if you need ten units of a chemical and you only have nine present, the reaction will not be fully successful. The inadequacy might be reflected in poor development, uneven color balance, inadequate fixing, chemical staining or other familiar problems.

Many of us use drums for film and print processing. Since the chemicals are expensive, particularly those used in color processing, we may be tempted to be stingy and reduce the amounts called for in the instructions. While many drums will specify a minimum volume for their use, it may not provide an adequate amount of chemistry for the reactions involved! If you are having problems of irregular development, or any of the others mentioned (or the myriad of possible problems unmentioned), and you have considered everything else, think about the amounts and concentrations of chemicals you are using. Have you mixed them according to instructions, or have you done what I did recently. I had a color film (C-41) processing kit which made 500ml of each chemical. Since my drum called for 640ml minimum, I diluted the chemicals by 30% to bring them to the necessary volume. I was successful because the reactions involved "go to completion" as long as there are adequate chemicals present, their concentration is not too significant within reason. Sometimes concentrations are significant to a reaction. Before you try this, research it or try it on photos which are repeatable if necessary.

We all know that you can use black and white developers in a wide range of dilutions by varying the development times accordingly. This is not generally recommended with color developers because the three color layers develop at different rates. If you over (or under) develop any of the three layers out of proportion to the others, you end up with a color imbalance which is not correctable in printing.

According to JOBO, a single 4X5 sheet of film requires at least 37.5ml of developer for successful chemical reaction regardless of the minimum volume specified by the tabk or drum. One 4X5 sheet of film is roughly equivalent to one roll of 36 exposure 35mm film, or 1 roll of 120 film. Keep this in mind when you are trying to save on chemicals.

Print for Yourself and Not for the Judges

After a recent hiatus in my photographic efforts, I recently resumed entering competitions. At the Fall CMCC competition on Sunday, November 18 (and not having been there for 7 years) I was amazed to note that well over half of the print winners had serious flaws (mostly unsharp but obvious problems). You say "obvious to whom?" Certainly not the judges seated (slumped) in easy chairs 10 feet away from the prints. Certainly our judges at SSCC would be able to make a better judgement on prints when they have the choice of viewing from 8 feet or 1 foot-or 1 inch with a magnifier, ala Carl

So print caringly for yourself and your wall. Your judges aren't always 10 feet away.

Chuck Bress

P.S. CMCC, tell your judges to be more critical!

Studio Manager Wanted

Steven Gottlieb, who was our speaker at the November slide meeting, is looking for a studio manager for his photography business. Some of the duties of this position involve: meeting with clients, booking shoot dates, preparing correspondence, and keeping files up-to-date-in gist, the business end of the studio (not to be confused with the photographer's assistant, a position already filled). If you are interested, or know someone who might be interested in finding out more about this position, please contact Steve at (301) 951-9648.
