PHOTOGRAPHY
COMPETITION & EXHIBITION

APRIL 4
- MAY 2
2020

The 6th Annual Allegany National Photography Competition & Exhibition

Located in Cumberland, Maryland, this exhibition melds the region's rich concentration of photographic artists with an influx of national photographers in a juried competition with over $5000 in cash prizes.

BROWNIE HARRIS, JUROR

Whether photographing the luminaries of our time or ordinary people at work in factories and on farms, Brownie is focused on each individual story which he approaches with a unique and timeless perspective. His career spans 40 years, featuring everything from iconic portraits of JFK, Jr., Andy Warhol and Miles Davis, to corporate photography. After 23 years in New York and Paris, he is now based in beautiful Wilmington, North Carolina.

PHOTOGRAPHY AS SCULPTURE $1200

Photography as Sculpture category is defined as a mixed media, three-dimensional (non-"flat") artwork composed of one or more of the artist's photographic images – using a dynamic combination of materials, methods, concepts, and subjects that challenge traditional boundaries and defy easy definition – work that presents photography in a non-traditional, unique way.

This category does NOT include: texture on the surface of a two-dimensional (flat) print; stereoscopic photographs; two dimensional (flat) prints that portray a perspective-shifting, pseudo-3D image.
