Soggy Bottom Riders - Soggy Michael's Blog

Welcome to Soggy Michael's Soggy Bottom Riders Blog.

Back in 2004, a bunch of folks that worked together in Beltsville Maryland started riding motorcycles together after work. Our first major ride, from Beltsville to Deep Creek Lake in western Maryland was 180 miles. Well, it rained most of the way there, and during the return trip!! 'Strangest thing, more times than not... it rained when we rode. And so, the Soggy Bottom Riders were born!

Although several of the founding members of the Soggy Bottom Riders no longer work in Beltsville, we still hit the road and share the thrill of motorcycling.

4429 miles later

Home... finally. 4429 miles logged on the odometer when I rolled down the driveway around 4 pm. I immediately got off the bike, leaving it fully loaded with the luggage strapped down, and did a cannonball into the hot tub. A quite relaxing 45 minutes.
